General Ann Dunwoody breaks the U.S. Military's 'Brass Ceiling'

AAUW
congratulates
Army General
Ann Dunwoody
on becoming the U.S. military's first female
Four-Star General

AAUW salutes Gen. Ann E. Dunwoody on this historic achievement, as well as all women in uniform who join her in serving this country with courage and distinction."

AAUW Executive Director Linda D. Hallman, CAE issued the following statement:

"On behalf of AAUW's 100,000 members around the nation, I extend special congratulations to Gen. Ann E. Dunwoody on becoming the first woman to attain the rank of four-star general. As a veteran myself, I know the discipline, commitment, and drive needed to flourish in the military.

We salute this remarkable woman who has just blazed a new trail for other distinguished women to follow. AAUW has long supported equity for women in the military.

In fact, some may be surprised to learn that many AAUW members favored a national draft for women in the 1940s.

These days, we are focused on another battle. We are fighting to break through the remaining barriers that too often prevent women from achieving their full potential and real economic security.

AAUW's 2008 Annual Report theme 'Breaking through Barriers'

An important AAUW report arrived in your mailboxes recently. Take time to read how AAUW is involved in "Breaking through Barriers" of all sorts.

Many of the short articles can be used as an inspiration for branch meetings, discussion groups, and ideas for advocates and activists throughout AAUW.

For example, it covers pay equity advances, such as the Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act that passed the House in July 2007, but fell just a few votes short in the Senate in April 2008.

There are several life-stories that outline how our Legal Advocacy Fund is assisting women.

Such as the article entitled "Standing up for Women on Campus," that tells the story of Lisa Simpson's Title IX lawsuit against the University of Colorado at Boulder.

One story is about Jane Chen, who left her job to work with a non-profit organization that supports orphans left after poor Chinese farmers died of AIDS as the result of selling blood to the Chinese government. Her work then led to the invention of a $25 non-electric incubator for premature babies.

There are many inspiring AAUW Donor stories scattered throughout.

Another article is entitled, "Let's Read Math!," and another page is full of quotable quotes from women who are the "Faces of Pay Equity."

There are also quotes from some of our elected officials on AAUW issues. That page is entitled, "Views from the Hill."

There's something for all members in this Annual Report for Fiscal Year 2008. Be sure to read it cover to cover.

Leadership Conference Call coming to you in July

By Celina Torres Fennell, Program Vice President

The AAUW Board of Directors received a number of comments from branches regarding the summer leadership conference. Those comments included moving the conference to the spring, making it a one-day conference that did not require an overnight stay, and reducing the attendees' expenses because the conference comes on the heels of the Association Convention.

To address these concerns, the board decided to hold a conference call the weekend of July 25-26, 2009 to discuss the important changes from the St. Louis convention and their impact on Texas branches. The day and time of the conference call will be set early this spring and will be paid for by the state. This conference call cannot replace your branch's attendance at the convention, but can help our state communicate and implement the changes consistently.

In addition, the board will be asking conference call participants what training their branches need, especially in light of the changes coming out of the convention.
